

Help build YMMSS, & earn affiliate commissions as you do

Full Time Income From Part Time Work

Would you like your own site, like this...
FullTimeIncomeFromPartTimeWork.com/yourID

Yes? Great. Here are the details of what I am offering:

You will get a copy of this site FullTimeIncomeFromPartTimeWork.com/yourID. Please click the link and examine it carefully before you order (thanks).

All the join links will be branded with your affiliate IDs. Anyone who joins YMMSS through your personalized site will generate an affiliate commission for you.

Getting traffic to visit your site is your responsibility, of course... though you can get help and marketing ideas from other members through the discussion lists and Bulletin Board.

The cost for this is $10 a month. You may cancel your subscription anytime by logging in to your payment processor and selecting their subscriptions management area. Set up is free.

Here's a features and benefits list of what you're getting when you order.

If you don't wish to use StormPay or Evocash, for example, just mention that in your email to me and I won't include it/them.

Features and benefits

1, No name. The text has been carefully written to comply with current YMMSS advertising guidelines, specifically to avoid using the company name (YMMSS and Your Money Machine Success System) on the landing page. We want to give no grounds for spam accusations. You can safely send people to this "no-name" site where they read a compelling case for joining this business and they can learn more by clicking on any of the links and that's when they find out the name of the company. Some of the links go to the company site, some links go to pages within this website, and some links go to other member websites.

2, No retirement. The site also avoids giving any impression that you get paid for doing nothing, or that you can "retire". When you quit your full time work because your YMMSS income has outstripped it, you will still have a little part time work to do (submit your ads, and read other people's ads ... yes, we call that work) to fulfill your membership requirements. As Kim wrote to me...

"Our law firm believes that we need to remove anything to do with retirement, retire, etc. because it suggests an income that is not earned. We can use such things as get paid full time for part time effort. Anyone can earn a huge income with very little effort. Work smarter and earn a large income. etc."

3, Minimum leakage. I wanted to give YMMSS members a powerful selling tool which provides maximum information to enquirers yet has minimum "leakage" of your contacts away to join YMMSS through others. And yet leakage really doesn't matter much because the straight line matrix structure of YMMSS means we all benefit when new people join. You'll notice that on the internal popup pages there is only one link back to the FullTimeIncomeFromPartTimeWork.com (it's in the copyright line at the bottom of the page) -- those internal pages all have a "Close this page" button.

4, Extras. As well as the compelling copy, the two earnings charts and the FAQ, I added a few extra-value features including...

- * the hover definitions of key terms,
- * the Email me link so people can email you right from your web page,
- * Tell a friend which includes the full web address of your page,
- * your EmoneyNews link if you wish,
- * the auto-updating panel showing the current commissions paid total, and
- * a fast-loading page design with a series of tables so that the top text and the first small table display rapidly.

You get all this (and future policy-compliance improvements) for $10 a month, including having your website hosted on server space provided by Michael Ambrosio's Host-me-pay-me.com. Mike is also a YMMSS member.
