What a blast.

What an honour.

Recently I had the opportunity to help a new online friend by the name of Lawrence. He had studied YMMSS thoroughly and now wanted to put $10,000 in and was wondering how to maximize his results in terms of residual income.

The result?

Talking of residual income scenarios, there's another new page at the site... in response to a lady who wanted to create a cashflow of $2000 a month for herself.

Talking of new pages added to the site, here are two more:

Step by step instructions on getting started

How to fund your INTGold or StormPay account

(Okay, I give in. This is actually a redirect. The URL is far too long to include here but it should make it more search-engine-findable.)

Like I said at the start, it's an honour (or honor if you use American English... which increasingly we do here in Australia but I'm still hanging onto the Queen's version, sorta) to read how excited our new members are when they start to see the PROOF that this program really works.

Take Muktar, for example.

When new member Irina had a question, she emailed the group and this is how Muktar replied. I thought you'd enjoy his response so I asked if I could share it with you. Naturally Muktar said yes.

"Welcome to the group! You've made a phenomenally good decision, I'd say. To give you an example, I threw caution to the wind last October and bought ten 320dollar ads. I had no job, no money-- just put it on a credit card. In early January, I got all that money back!

Then I got it again in March!

And I'm getting it again this week!

I tried lots of things before this, too-- this is the only thing that has ever worked for me. I can't tell you what the future holds, but I have an idea that you're gonna be very pleasantly surprised!

Cheerio!

Mukhtar Ramsey"

I find letters like that encouraging. Dont you?

Well, that's it for now.

Best wishes to you until next time.

And please dont hesitate to drop me a line if I can help you get started, or answer your questions.
